Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my interest in joining your esteemed organization. My name is Christian James Aguilar, and I am a recent graduate eager to apply the knowledge and skills I have gained through my academic and personal development.

Previously, I attempted to apply to your company but was informed that applications from undergraduates were not being accepted at the time. Now that I have successfully completed my degree, I am excited to reintroduce myself and explore any opportunities that align with my background and aspirations.

Throughout my academic journey, I have developed a solid foundation in software development, system design, and database management, and I am passionate about applying these skills in a professional setting. I am confident that with my eagerness to learn, strong work ethic, and adaptability, I can contribute positively to your team.

I have attached my resume for your review and would welcome the opportunity to further discuss how I can be a valuable addition to your organization. Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the possibility of working with you.

Sincerely,

Aguilar, Christian James T.
